

Share

Tweet

Forward

REGISTER FOR THE SUMMIT

Join The Civic Canopy and over 200 collaborative leaders from across Colorado and the country for a two-day summit to build skills and develop tools to tackle complex issues. Topics and learning opportunities to include: collaborative leadership development, asset based approaches, technology for change, peer learning, tackling tensions in coalition work, getting to results --- and much more.

REGISTRATION FEE STRUCTURE

Starting August 1, 2018:

Single registration = $699/person + fees

Group of two = $649/person + fees

Group of three = $599/person + fees

Summit 2018 Participant Learning Objectives Announced

Develop a deeper understanding of the core concepts related to collaborative practice

Build practical skills that can be applied to one's work

Inspire a culture of collaboration amongst Summit participants

Strengthen the field of effective collaboration across Colorado, and beyond

Question? Email summit@civikkanopy.org

Featured Presenters:

Mark Cabaj Returns to the Summit!

Join us in welcoming Mark Cabaj back for his 3rd year co-creating, facilitating, and presenting at the 2018 Culture of Collaboration Summit!

Click to learn more about Mark, and see details from sessions he has hosted at prior Summits!

Spark Policy Institute

Spark Policy Institute partners with stakeholders throughout the country to develop innovative, research-based solutions to complex societal problems. They combine community and stakeholder-driven research with practical, hands-on experience and best practices, allowing for solutions that bridge sectors, issues, beliefs, and values. By integrating diverse policy systems, we identify and develop the best solutions for all stakeholders. Learn more at sparkpolicy.com

Kumu Brings Visual Collaboration to the Summit

"Clarity begins with Kumu." The designers of Kumu, the designers of technology solutions that promote connection and collaboration, return to the Summit in 2018! Kumu is a powerful data visualization platform that helps organize complex information into interactive relationship maps. Learn more at kumu.io

The Summit has been approved by United Way Worldwide for flexible credit use!

Approval means each U.S.- or Canada-based attendee can use flex credits for up to $499 in registration fees, $500 in travel expenses, and $420 in per diem ($210 per day x 2 days). Please pay for these expenses directly as they arise; you will be reimbursed after the event, when you submit the request form.

Please email Emily at summit@civiccanopy.org for more information regarding United Way flexible credit use including instructions regarding reimbursement and accessing your account balance. Check with your supervisor or contact Ask United Way (United Way Online access required) for additional support.

Venue Lodging Available

A block of rooms is reserved at the Hyatt Aurora for a discounted Summit attendee rate. To make your reservations, please Click Here. If additional assistance is needed, please call 888-421-1442.

Want to know the latest details? Sign-up for our Summit Newsletter to get the most update and accurate information as it develops.

Our event website is now live so visit www.civiccanopy.org/summit periodically to see info from prior years, access updates to the Summit 2018 agenda, and see the schedule as it is developed. Sign up for the newsletter to ensure you are informed of updates along the way.

Click here to read the Summit 2017 report

Click here to access Summit 2017 materials on Civic Network \(make a profile to access more features\)!

Latest Blog Post: Reflections of a Canopian: Alison McCarthy, MSW Intern 2013-2014
